CIVIL CASE MANAGEMENT PLAN AND SCHEDULING ORDER

After consultation with counsel for the parties, the Court adopts the following Civil Case Management Plan and Scheduling Order, in accordance with Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 16 and 26(f).

1. The next status conference will be held February 5, 2010 at 10:30 a.m.
2. All parties do not consent to conducting further proceedings before a Magistrate Judge, including motions and trial, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c).
3. This case is to be tried to a jury.
4. No additional parties may be joined except with leave of the Court. Except for good cause shown, any motion to join additional parties must be filed within 30 days from the date of this Order.
5. A party may not amend its pleadings except with leave of the Court. Except for good cause shown, any motion to amend pleadings must be filed within 30 days from the date of this Order.
6. The parties must complete their initial disclosures under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(1) no later than 14 days from the date of this Order.
7. The parties must complete fact discovery no later than April 8, 2010.

8. If all parties consent in writing, they may extend the following interim deadlines without application to the Court, provided that the parties complete all fact discovery by the date set forth in paragraph 6. Under this Order's interim deadlines, the parties must:
  - a. Serve initial requests for production of documents by December 22, 2009.
  - b. Serve interrogatories by December 22, 2009.
  - c. Complete depositions of fact witnesses by April 8, 2010.
    - i. Unless the parties agree or the Court so orders, the parties may not hold depositions until all parties have responded to initial requests for document production.
    - ii. There is no priority in deposition by reason of a party's status as plaintiff or defendant.
    - iii. Unless the parties agree or the Court so orders, non-party depositions must follow initial party depositions.
    - iv. Consistent with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(d), the parties may not extend depositions beyond one business day without prior leave of the Court.
  - d. Serve requests to admit no later than March 25, 2010.
9. Settlement: No later than 14 days following the close of fact discovery, all counsel must meet face-to-face for at least one hour to discuss settlement.
10. Parties may make post-discovery dispositive motions in accordance with the Court's Individual Practices and the following schedule:
  - a. Parties must serve moving papers, if any, by April 22, 2010.
  - b. Parties must serve opposition papers, if any, by May 6, 2010.
  - c. Parties must serve reply papers, if any, by May 14, 2010.
11. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, within 30 days from the date for the completion of discovery in a civil case or, if a party has filed a dispositive motion, then within 30 days of a decision resolving the motion, the parties shall submit to the Court for its approval a joint pretrial order prepared in accordance with the Court's Individual Practices and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(3).
12. Counsel for the parties have conferred and their present best estimate of the length of trial is: 3 to 4 days.
13. At the close of discovery or, if a party has filed a dispositive motion, then within 30 days of a decision resolving the motion, the Court will set a Ready Trial Date. At any time on or after the Ready Trial Date, the Court may call the parties to trial upon 48 hours' notice. Therefore, counsel must notify the Court and their adversaries in writing of any potential scheduling conflicts—including, but not limited to, trials and vacations—that would prevent a trial at a particular time. Such notice must come before the Court notifies counsel of an actual trial date, not after counsel receives notification of the actual trial date. Counsel should notify the Court and all other counsel in writing, at the earliest possible time, of any scheduling problems involving out-of-town witnesses or other exigencies.

14. Where the parties resolve the case before the entry of judgment, they must submit a stipulation of discontinuance—signed by all parties—before the Court will remove the case from the trial calendar. If the parties settle within 48 hours of trial or the filing of a dispositive motion, they must immediately notify the Court of such settlement, and fax to the Court no less than 36 hours before their planned appearance, a stipulation of discontinuance, signed by all parties.

This ORDER may not be modified or the dates herein extended, except by further Order of this Court for good cause shown. Any application to modify or extend must be made in a written application in accordance with paragraph 1(E) of the Court's Individual Practices and must be made no less than five (5) days before the expiration of the date sought to be extended.
